LOCAL ANGEL INVESTORS

Long Island Capital Alliance

www.licapital.org

A local organization that strives to stimulate capital formation and business development on Long Island by connecting companies with prominent capital providers.

New York Angels, Inc.

www.newyorkangels.com

A local forum where members can exchange information about investment opportunities in early-stage technology and emerging growth companies in the Northeast. They provide early-stage capital in the range of $250,000 - $750,000.

Long Island Angel Network

<http://liangels.angelgroups.net>

LIAN consists of individual angel investors interested in financing privately held companies or ventures typically at an early stage of development. Most capital investments are in the $100,000 to $2 million range.

OTHER FUNDING SOURCES

Angel Capital Association

www.angelcapitalassociation.org

A directory of groups of angel investors throughout the United States and Canada. An "angel" is a private investor who invests personal funds in new enterprises.

Active Capital

www.activecapital.org

A non-profit organization designed to enable entrepreneurs to connect with angel investors through the Internet. Founded originally by the U.S. Small Business Administration, Active Capital has now become a low cost option for entrepreneurs to register securities for sale, up to $5 million annually.

Investor's Circle

www.investorscircle.net

A national network of investors making private investments to socially responsible companies. For a fee, proposals are circulated among the membership.

National Association of Seed and Venture Funds

www.nasvf.org

An organization of private, public and non-profit groups committed to building their local economies by investing and facilitating investment in local entrepreneurs. Seminars are provided for entrepreneurs.

National Association of Small Business Investment Companies

www.nasbic.org

This is the professional association of the Small Business Investment Company (SBIC) that invests in small business start-ups. A list of member companies is available from the site.

National Venture Capital Association

www.nvca.org

The NVCA is a trade association representing the venture capital industry in the U.S. It is a member-based organization that manages risk equity capital for high growth companies.
