

Websites for Entrepreneurs

BUSINESS LINK COLLECTION

“Big companies are small companies that succeeded”
– Robert Townsend

Funding Sources

Angel Capital Association Directory

www.angelcapitalassociation.com

A directory of groups of angel investors throughout the United States and Canada. An “angel” is a private investor who invests personal funds in new enterprises.

Active Capital

www.activecapital.org

A non-profit organization designed to enable entrepreneurs to connect with angel investors through the Internet. Founded originally by the U.S. Small Business Administration, Active Capital has now become a low cost option for entrepreneurs to register securities for sale, up to $5 million annually.

Investor’s Circle

www.investorscircle.net

A national network of investors making private investments to socially responsible companies. For a fee, proposals are circulated among the membership.

National Association of Seed and Venture Funds

www.nasvf.org

An organization of private, public and non-profit groups committed to building their local economies by investing and facilitating investment in local entrepreneurs. Seminars are provided for entrepreneurs.

National Association of Small Business Investment Companies

www.nasbic.org

This is the professional association of the Small Business Investment Company (SBIC) that invests in small business start-ups. A list of member companies is available from the site.

National Venture Capital Association

www.nvca.org

The NVCA is a trade association representing the venture capital industry in the U.S. It is a member-based organization that manages risk equity capital for high growth companies.

Entrepreneur's Sources

Better Business Bureau

www.bbb.org

A respected organization of businesses that adhere to specific standards. Business and consumer tips cover a variety of topics from coping with disasters to improving energy efficiency.

EntreWorld

www.entreworld.org

Developed by the Kauffman Foundation, EntreWorld provides information on a variety of topics related to entrepreneurship and starting and running a business.

NASE: National Association of the Self-Employed

www.nase.org

A membership organization providing services to the self-employed and small businesses. NASE focuses exclusively on the needs of businesses with up to ten employees or less.

NAWBO: National Association of Women Business Owners

www.nawbo.org

A membership organization of women-owned businesses with many local chapters nationwide.

Compiled by Eileen Effrat
Reference Department
November 2005

Half Hollow Hills Community Library
<http://hhhl.suffolk.lib.ny.us>